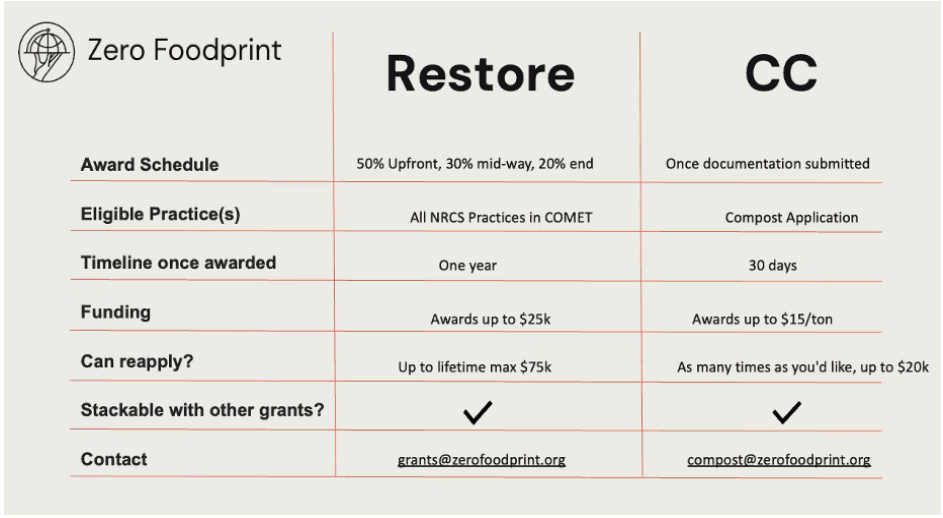
<table>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>

Not reimbursement based, you submit a bid for what practice will cost
Can include funds for a Technical Assistance Provider in bid

We recommend reviewing Project Guidelines
Small acreage and community gardens can apply.

Practices that tend to have bigger carbon sequestration on smaller acreage: are hedgerows, windbreaks, etc.

Minimum grant amount is $1500.
Projects are selected based on cost efficiency for carbon sequestration



</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>seeds for bees®
Project Apis m.</td>
<td>

Project Apis m.'s Seeds for Bees® program awards cover crop seed to farmers and beekeepers within the state of California
Seeds for Bees® is a program of Project Apis m., a nonprofit organization, which relies on donations from businesses, farmers, and beekeepers and does not receive government funding.
Seeds for Bees® is a multi-year program:
- 1st year participants qualify for up to $2,500 in free seed
- 2nd year participants qualify for up to $1,500 in free seed

</td>
<td>Application reopens on April 1, 2026!</td>
</tr>
</table>